FRIDAY EVE'NG., DECEMBER 18.

UTILIZING LEATHER CHIPS. - While numerous processes for utilizing the offal in the manufacture of leather are in successful operation, there has been a comparatively open field respecting leather waste. At the Vienna Exhibition, leather was shown suitable for heels; toe caps and inner soles, prepared from leather clippings, according to a French method, by simply mixing them with some adhesive substance, forming the mass into rectangular plates, on top of each other, subjecting them to hydraulic pressure, and then drying and rolling them. This article was restricted in use because it could not withstand moisture. A Copenhagen firm, however, exhibited for the first time an article made upon an entirely different plan. The leather scraps were first converted, in a suitable machine, into a sort of converted, in a suitable machine, into a sort of leather wool, which was then mixed with caoutchoue and different chemical reagents, kneaded by machinery into a thick, pasty mass, and then formed in metal moulds and dried and subjected to a gradually increasing pressure until it was finished, under 6,000 to 10,000 pounds to the square inch. The appearance of leather is imparted to it by a light coating. Articles manufactured from this material are said to be fifty per cent cheaper than those made from leather, and can be made in the same manner, while they are at the same time perfectly waterproof. Chemical investigation shows it to consist of about torty per cent caoutchouc and sixty per cent leather.

TO SUPPRESS GAMES OF CHANCE. - The following bill, pending in the State Senate, will, if it becomes a law, include many persons who have not heretofore supposed they were gambling, for instance, the ladies who raffle articles of their handiwork at church fairs. It is as follows:

"If any person shall set up, or promote, or be concerned in managing or drawing a lottery, or reffle, or gift enterprise, for money or other thing of value, or knowingly permit such lottery in any house under his control, or knowingly permit money or other property to be raffled for in such house, or to be won therein by throwing or using dice, or by any other game of chance, or knowingly permit the sale in such house of any chance or ticket in or share of a lottery or gift enterprise, or any writing, certificate, bill, token or other device, purporting or intended to guarantee or assure to any person, or to entitle him to a prize, or share of or interest in a prize, to be drawn in a lottery or gift enterprise, or shall for himself or any other person, buy, sell, or transfer, or have in his possession, for the purpose of sale, or with intent to exchange, negotiate or transfer, or shall aid in selling, exchanging, negotiating or transferring a chance or ticket in a lottery, rafflle or gift enterprise, or any such writing, certificate, bill, token or device, he shall be confined in jail not more than one year, and fined not exceeding five hundred dollars.
